Sunseeker China's showing in this elite hierarchy starts with the Sunseeker 80 Yacht. This new model is the second highest ranking vessel and is the largest Sunseeker China yacht berthed in China. At 80-foot long, she is a picture of both power and beauty.

Occupying the fourth slot on the prestigious list is the Sunseeker Manhattan 70. A statement of luxury, this particular model first arrived in China last December and is owned by the Nine Dragons Marina managing director Mr Li Qinfu. The Manhattan 70 will make her maiden visit to Sanya in April.

The Sunseeker Manhattan 66 is the ninth spectacular vessel made by Sunseeker China that qualifies in the top-10. Owned by the CEO of souhu.com, Zhang Chaoyang, who is famous for christening his boat "HAPPY", it offers the utmost in comfort and styling and is described by the China Boating editors as "definitely one of the most striking yachts in China".

The final Sunseeker yacht in the exclusive group is the Sunseeker Manhattan 64. At number ten on the list, this attractive boat is one of Sunseeker's classics and is now berthed at the wharf in Qingdao that hosted the 2008 Olympic regatta.

At Sunseeker China, high-quality engineering marries with bespoke fittings to ensure that every boat is not only uniquely tailored to every customer – but that they all exhibit the same unwavering build quality. With its trademark sophisticated design and attention to detail, it is no surprise that Sunseeker China dominates the top-10, and their comprehensive showing illustrates once again that Sunseeker China is the undisputed market leader in the Chinese yachting industry.
